DIII INTRODUCTIONS

- The importance of the FAR!
 - When you think of your role as an FAR – why is it important?
- What is one thing you hope to get out of the FARA Annual Meeting?
 - (Why did you come – what do you hope to accomplish by being here?)

THE DIII PHILOSOPHY

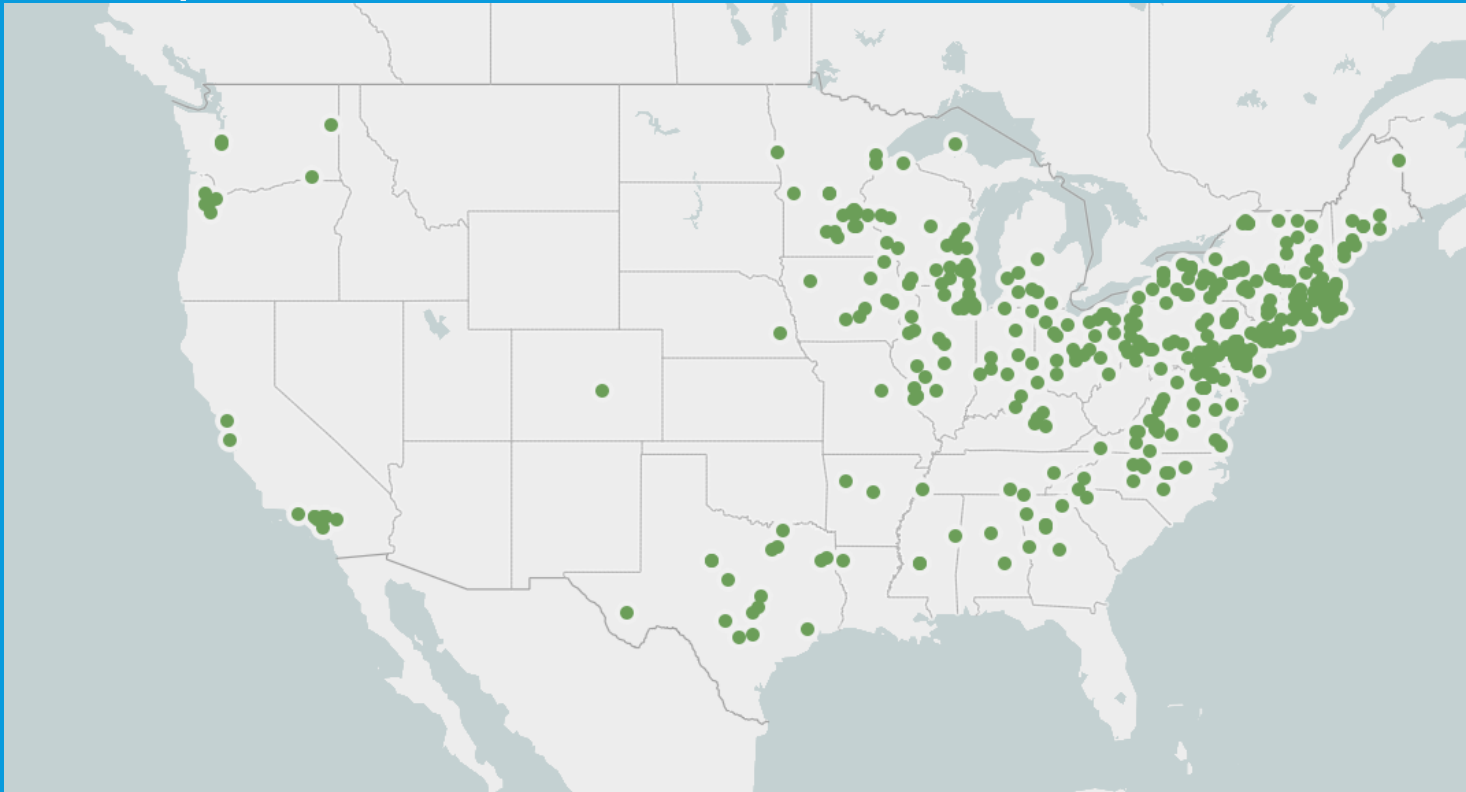

- Two primary tenets (different than DI or DII):
 - Academic Focus: the highest priority is the overall educational experience and successful completion
 - Integration: athletics is part of the educational experience and supports the overall mission of the institution
 - Support of educating the “WHOLE” student

THE DIII PHILOSOPHY

- The three D's:
 - Discover: student-athletes are encouraged to pursue their interests
 - Develop: student-athletes are supported to develop into well-rounded adults (educating the “whole” student”)
 - Dedicate: student-athletes are expected to dedicate themselves to achieve their full potential and supported to do so

WE ARE DIII

- We make up 40% of the NCAA's total membership
- On average, student-athletes make up 31% of the student body on DIII campuses

FARA WEBSITE

- FARA Website: <https://www.ncaafara.org/>

Below the text is a section titled "OUR MISSION:" followed by a list of four bullet points:

- To clarify and articulate the role of the faculty athletics representative (FAR) on individual campuses;
- To enhance the level of institutional support provided to FARs in their efforts to ensure academic integrity, institutional control and student-athlete welfare;
- To provide orientation and professional development programs for FARs;
- To offer a collective voice for FARs on intercollegiate athletics issues of national significance.

On the right side of the page is a vertical navigation menu with four items: "ABOUT FARA" (highlighted in blue), "FARA CONSTITUTION", "FARA MEMBERSHIP & EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE", and "ABOUT FARs".

DIVISION III UPDATE

June 2023

Association-wide News
(followed by division-specific news)

Hello Fellow FARs – Hope everyone is well and enjoying their summer with family and friends.

Right around the corner is our FARA Annual Conference (November 16-18 in Indianapolis), and I hope many of you are planning to attend. The FARA Executive Committee are putting together a great program for FARs old and new, but I especially encourage new FARs to attend for two reasons: the information you will learn and the people you will meet. Both will make your time as a FAR easier, more effective and more enjoyable. I have enjoyed many aspects of my time as FAR, but the best part has been getting to work with FARs all over the country, many who will be lifelong friends. See you in Indianapolis!

ABOUT

Why D3.Ticker?

Building off the momentum generated by D1.ticker since January of 2013, collegiate administrators & those connected to the industry now have a curation service that will keep them up to date on developments specific to DIII college athletics. Administrative hires, coaching changes, facilities, sponsorships, fund-raising, compliance issues, as well as general trends in social media, technology, new media, marketing, advertising & business operations will be included. Division III athletics also has a distinctly different narrative than Division I or II, so personal interest stories, work-life balance entries & other division-specific topics will be a focus.

D3.ticker is designed for speed & simplicity. One email every Monday, Wednesday & Friday morning with a curated selection of the most important fact-based developments in DIII college athletics. Key for those who want to gain an advantage with their knowledge base, while also freeing more time to excel in their individual roles. Subscription is free, thanks to industry-leader Sidarm Sports. Subscribe now and enjoy your effective time savings without missing a beat.

NACDA: THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF COLLEGIATE DIRECTORS OF ATHLETICS

- NACDA website: <https://nacda.com/>

The image shows a screenshot of the NACDA website. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the NACDA logo on the left and a menu with items: ABOUT US, AWARDS, CONVENTION (highlighted in yellow), EVENTS, and JOB CENTER. To the right of the menu are social media icons for Twitter and Facebook. Above the menu, a row of logos for various athletic associations is visible, including CABMA, CEFMA, D2 ADA, D2 CCA, DIICA, FCS ADA, I-AAA ADA, ICLA, MDA, N4A, NAAC, and NAAD. The main content area features a large banner with a group photo of people. The text on the banner reads: "Accepting Applications 2024 Postgraduate Scholarship" in large white font, followed by "Deadline: February 1, 2024" in a smaller white font. Below the photo, a black box contains the text "2024 McLendon Minority Scholarship Applications Now Being Accepted" in white. Underneath this, it says "The application deadline is Thursday, February 1." At the bottom of the banner, there is a "MORE NEWS" button with left and right arrow icons. In the bottom left corner of the banner, there is a logo for "Fiesta Bowl" and in the bottom right corner, there is a logo for the "Mark H. McCormack Department of Sport Management".
